Response Times

All disputes are logged and we aim to acknowledge all disputes within 24 working hours. Your complaint will be investigated and a case handler assigned.

If we cannot resolve your complaint within the first 3 working days, an agreed contact time will be made and you will be updated regularly by us.

Stages to Resolve Your Complaint

| | Stage | Description |
|---|---|---|
| 1 | Request for complaint to be raised | You can request to raise a complaint by contacting your Account Manager, Customer Service Team or by any other method of contact set out above. |
| 2 | Receipt of a complaint | All complaints are sent to the relevant department and a complaint case will be raised. The customer service team will confirm your contact details and the case reference sending you an email or a letter should you prefer to confirm these details in writing. Your case handler will then contact you within 48 hours of your complaint being raised to introduce themselves and set the expectations for your complaint moving forward, giving their direct contact details. |
| 3 | Case Investigation | The case handler will update you at regular intervals agreed with you at your initial conversation. Wherever possible contact will be made by phone and followed up by email. |
| 4 | Closure | If you confirm following the investigation that your complaint has been resolved, the case will be closed. |
| 5 | Case re-open/Case Escalation | If, after you have spoken to the case handler, you are not satisfied with our response, the original case will be re-opened or immediately escalated and assigned to the Customer Service Manager/Head of Professional Services. |
| 6 | Case open over 8 weeks | If the complaint is open for 8 weeks or longer the case handler will inform you that you have the right to contact Ofcom if applicable. Please see below for further information. |

Alternative Dispute Resolution

If we have not resolved your complaint to your satisfaction after 8 weeks or if you have received a letter from us saying that your complaint has reached “deadlock”, you may make a complaint through Ofcom.
